

Melbourne Rare Book Fair 2022

Melbourne Rare Book Fair – COVID 19 Guidelines for Exhibitors

Please review the current Victorian Government Covid Requirements for business.

These requirements will apply to the Melbourne Rare Book Fair

Under the current rules:

- Exhibitors must be double vaccinated and proof of vaccination must be provided to the Fair Convenor.
- Exhibitors are strongly recommended (but not required) to wear masks. However if you are a closed contact you must wear a mask at all times.
- The public are strongly recommended (but not required) to wear masks.
- Density limits do not apply.
- Check-In is not required.

If an exhibitor feels un-well, they should immediately: isolate; test; and notify the Fair Convenor

All exhibitors should have their own Covid Safe Plan as required for their own place of business.

All exhibitors should read and be familiar with the Melbourne Rare Book Fair Covid Safe Plan available from the exhibitor tools menu in the Rare Book Fair website

Hand sanitation stands will be provided at the entrance to the Fair.

The Victorian Government Covid requirements will be monitored, and these Guidelines updated as required.

All exhibitors should read and be familiar with the Melbourne Rare Book Fair Covid Safe Plan available from the exhibitor tools menu in the Rare Book Fair website
